

Chippu the mischiefmak- -er

Deep in the heart of Greenwood Jungle, there lived a little monkey named Chippu. He was clever, quick, and—most of all—a big troublemaker.

Unlike the other animals, who gathered food and lived peacefully, Chippu had a habit of stealing things from humans.

“Why work for food when humans leave so many shiny things lying around?” he would say, swinging from tree to tree.

His best friend, Koko the parrot, always warned him.

“Chippu, one day your tricks will land you in trouble!”

But Chippu never listened.

One day, while sneaking through a human campsite, Chippu spotted something amazing—a tablet lying on a wooden bench.

“Ooooh! A new toy!” he grinned, grabbing it.

The screen was still on, showing a game with a big, flashing message:

“Win 100 Bananas Instantly! Click to Play!”

Chippu's eyes widened. “100 bananas?!”

That's a dream come true!”

He tapped the screen without thinking.

Suddenly, the tablet flashed red and the game disappeared.

A scary monkey face appeared on the screen with glowing red eyes.

“Hello, Chippu. Now I have all your secrets.”

Chippu gulped. “What... secrets?”

The screen filled with images of all the things he had stolen! The sunglasses, the watches, even the fruit baskets!

“I am the Cyber Phantom,” the creepy monkey laughed. “I know EVERYTHING. If you don't give me more, I will tell all the humans where you hide their things!”

Chippu's tail curled in fear. He had never been caught before!

"What do you want?!" Chippu screeched.

The Cyber Phantom smirked.
"More! Find me more human treasures, and I'll keep your secret safe."

Chippu didn't know what to do. He looked at Koko, who shook his head.

"This is a scam, Chippu! You fell into a trap!" Koko cried.

"But... what if the humans find me? I'll be in trouble!" Chippu whimpered.

"If you keep listening to the Cyber Phantom, you'll be in bigger trouble," Koko warned.

Chippu took a deep breath. He had to be smart now.

Instead of stealing more, he rushed to Elder Tiku, the wise old tortoise.

"Oh dear, Chippu, you clicked on a phishing scam!" Elder Tiku said, shaking his head.

“A... fishing what?” Chippu asked, confused.

“Phishing! It’s a trick used to fool people into giving up their information. The Cyber Phantom is a hacker. He doesn’t really know anything—he just scared you into thinking he does.”

Chippu’s mouth fell open. “So... if I don’t steal anything more, he can’t do anything to me?”

“Exactly!” Elder Tiku nodded. “And I’ll teach you how to erase your tracks.”

Chippu and Koko worked together to reset the tablet and delete all traces of his mistakes.

The Cyber Phantom’s evil face vanished from the screen.

“You did it, Chippu!” Koko cheered.

For the first time, Chippu felt proud—not because he had stolen something, but because he had made the right choice.

“No more stealing,” he promised. “From now on, I’ll get things the honest way!”

The jungle animals cheered, and even Elder Tiku smiled.

And just like that, Chippu the Mischief Maker became Chippu the Wise.

Now, it's YOUR turn!

If you were in Chippu's place, what would YOU have done?

- Would you have clicked on the message?
- How can you tell if something is a cyber trick?
- What would you teach your friends about online safety?

Remember:

- 🚫 Never click on random links!
- 🔒 Keep your secrets safe!
- 🧠 Always ask a trusted elder if you're unsure!

Chippu learned his lesson—will you?
